Instrument Rental and Maintenance Contract

I, the undersigned, agree to rent the described instrument, bow, case and other properties for the use of the student named below to participate in the Music Opportunity Program for the consideration of $_____ per month/semester/school year (non-refundable) for a term ending_____ and do further agree:

1. to keep said instrument and all other properties in good repair;
2. to return said instrument and all other properties in good condition;
3. to give one week's notice of the student's intent to discontinue study in the Music Opportunity Program;
4. to return said instrument and all other properties immediately in the event the student named below discontinues his/herstudy in the Music Opportunity Program;
5. this contract shall remain in effect as long as the student named below is involved in the Music Opportunity Program even though the instrument designated below should change from time to time.

The Music Opportunity Program agrees to perform routine maintenance on the instrument and all other properties. This contract does not include lost or stolen instruments, broken parts, or instruments which have sustained damage. An additional fee will be assessed for excessive wear and tear on the instrument.

In the event the instrument sustains damage not covered by this Maintenance Agreement, the undersigned parent/guardian agrees to payto the Alabama School of Fine Arts Music Opportunity Program the replacement cost of the instrument or other property, or the repair cost of the instrument or other property, whichever is less.

It shall be understood that the undersigned parent/guardian is held fully responsible for said instrument and all other properties, and in the event of loss or theft, the full burden of cost for the replacement of the instrument and all other properties shall be the sole responsibility of the undersigned parent/guardian.

I, the undersigned, assume full responsibility for payment of this account. If default be made, then, at the option of the Alabama School of Fine Arts Music Opportunity Program or its agent, the full amount shall at once become due and collectible, without notice. If in the judgment of the Music Opportunity Program it becomes necessary to engage the services of a collection agency or attorney to effect collection or to settle any dispute in connection with this account, the undersigned agrees to pay such collection agency or attorney fees, reasonable expenses and costs as hereby incurred.

This Contract is automatically renewed at the end of each rental period by the acceptance of the rental fee by the Music Opportunity Program. The Music Opportunity Program reserves the right to increase the fees at the end of each rental period.
